Booking for Drumclog- Call Mary on ▬▬▬▬▬
Bereavement - Call Ian Douglas on ▬▬▬▬

SUNDAY MORNING: Although booking is no longer required at Avendale, seating is a bit tighter at Drumclog, so please continue phoning Mary Harkness on the number at the top of the page to book for the next few weeks.

We are really looking forward to this week's worship being led by Angus Allan.

THE HIDING PLACE

What a wonderful evening we had last Tuesday night. Apart from the thrill of being at a live performance with clapping and audience reaction, Searchlight Theatre Company put on a stunning performance of this incredible story of bravery and faith in the face of extreme adversity.

She risked everything for the sake of others...

COP 26 Pilgrims

We've been contacted by Christian Climate Action about pilgrims walking from London to Glasgow for the COP 26 Climate Summit being held in Glasgow in November. They've asked if anyone could provide accommodation on the evening of Wednesday, 27 October 2021. If anyone wishes to do so, then please let us know at info@avendale-drumclog.org.uk and we'll put you in touch. The pilgrims will be arriving in Strathaven from Kirkmuirhill and will then be walking to Blantyre.

TRAIDCRAFT

A huge thank you to Alison McKinlay for her many years of providing a traidcraft stall and helping us to buy more ethically.
Alison Muntz has kindly agreed to take up the mantle. Watch this space for updates and how to order Christmas cards and goodies

Tea Rota

It is hoped we will be able to re-start teas after the service soon. If anyone is willing to help serve or to draw up the rota, then please drop a note to info@avendale-drumclog.org.uk
