Remember to invite people to tune in to Avondale Radio on Wednesdays 3-4pm or the repeat on Sundays 9-10am as Angus & Murray present Avendale & Drumclog's slot. Contemporary Christian music. chat, interviews and a thought from Rev Calum. www.avondaleradio.com

There is a great buzz about all that is happening in the church just now. Most importantly, new people are coming along to Taketime every 2nd Tuesday in the Library at 1.30pm, The Haven coffee hub on Mondays from 10am to catch up with friends. Bugglets is attracting young Mums and carers with pre-schoolers and Yarn in the Barn for men on the last Saturday at 8am. At all these there is an opportunity to get to know new people.

TRADCRAFT

Message From Alison Muntz

I have just read that there will be a fair trade stall on the first Sunday of the month, and yes that was the plan...! However the observant will have noticed that there was a stall last Sunday- for reasons to do with COVID and my holiday there was no stall in early April and an impending wedding makes this Sunday a bit difficult. I will get back on track for June; however, if you have anything you wish to order, speak to me anytime.

I have some catalogues, but it is very straightforward to browse Tradecraft's shop online - Tradecraftshop.co.uk - jot down details and pass them to me. I am about to try Mango Jam and am looking forward to trying a new range of basmati rice from a farmers' cooperative in Malawi and I will keep you posted on my recommendations. Elizabeth Gillespie and I are taste trialling the rich fruit slab cake on your behalf- not really much of a sacrifice as we know it is delicious!

Also I have just received a selection of cards, blank for your own messages, should anyone need them.
